Editions

Mina Nouri's acquaintance with printmaking dates back to 1970, when she began her study in Fine Arts Academy of Rome (Accademia di Belle Arti di Roma). She has been diligently engaged with this art since 1973. Teaching and promoting this art in university from 1984, she has become an active and significant figure in this field and her influence on printmaking in Iran is undeniable.

"Editions" is an exhibition of five different periods of her work from 1979 to 2012. In selecting these works out of more than 120 available pieces, Emkan attempts to illustrate a special aesthetic approach as well as providing a review of this collection.
